

R. No 476
04 June 2009

RPA

- (f) To help to conduct programmes about project management in educational institutions.
- (g) To study, research and to collect data about project management.
- (h) To provide and make to provide exchange of thought, discussion, study, research, publication etc. among the managers of project of governmental/non-governmental/international non-governmental organizations and to do professionalization of project management.
- (i) Providing consultancy about project management, to award annually to the organization and persons which operate the project excellently.
- (j) To do and make to do other programmes about project management.

5. Functions to be done to achieve the objectives of organization :-

This organization shall do the following functions to achieve the above objectives:

- (a) The organization shall implement the said objectives only after obtaining approval or licenses from the concerning bodies in accordance with Prevailing Laws of Nepal.
- (b) To construct house or to take on rent or on lease which needed the organization and to purchase computer, telephone & fax like official goods and to purchase vehicle or to use it taking on rent.
- (c) To appoint staffs which needed the organization and to settle their terms and conditions of service.
- (d) To operate bank account depositing money obtained to the organization.
- (e) The organization could make contract with any person, organization and body as per need of the organization.
- (f) Other necessary things :
  - (1) Whatever may be written in this constitutions, while operating the work for the fulfillment of its objectives, program shall be operated taking prior approval to the concerning bodies related office situated in the district except the functions as prescribed to be done by the social organization in accordance with national plan, policy and program of concerning body and in accordance with prevailing laws.

