

R. No. 476

RPD

04 June 2009

But the general meeting called again as stated in sub-article (4) of article 11 of constitution, if 51 percent out of total founder members if presence, there shall be no hindrance to hold the meeting.

- (2) Whatever may be written in above sub-sections, to amend the constitution of the organization there should be presence of 75% of total members or more members of the organization.

Chapter-6

Fund

15. Fund of the organization:- There shall be its separate fund of the organization and in that fund there shall be followingly received amount.

- (a) Money obtained for membership fee.
- (b) Money donated voluntarily by somebody.
- (c) Money earned by the organization from movable and immovable properties.
- (d) The capital invested by the organization and other amount earned by it.
- (e) Donation and gift obtained in accordance with prevailing laws from His Majesty's Government and national/international donor organization and person. While taking it there shall be taken prior approval of His Majesty's Government.
- (f) Money received from different activities and programmes conducted by the organization.
- (g) Money received from financial and objectives assistance, and grant and amount received from income sources.
- (h) Debt and assistance taken from governmental and different non-governmental organization by the approval of the Executive Committee and the general meeting.

- (2) If grand amount is taken from foreign person or organization then there shall be taken approval of the social welfare council or Ministry of Finance.

16. Account operation:- The account of the organization shall be operated by the joint signatures of the president and the treasurer. But if there needed to operate the account of the organization making any decision by the Executive

