

R.No 476

04 June 2009

RPO

- (d) The venue, time and date of election shall be as prescribed by the Executive Committee.
- (e) The election committee declare elected to the candidate who obtain majority.
- (f) If there becomes tie of vote to any two or more than two candidates while doing vote counting then it shall be decided by lot by the election committee.
- (g) While counting the vote by the election committee, generally it shall do in the presence of candidate and representative as prescribed by him/her, but by the only the causes of having not presented any candidate and representatives, vote counting shall not be stopped.
- (h) To complete all level elections of the organization formally, freely and impartially shall be the responsibility of the election committee.
- (i) For the functions of the election, the Executive Committee could implement Directives and could frame Regulations, but in the condition of having not such Directives and Regulations. The procedures relating to the election shall be as prescribed and determined by the election committee.
- (j) If any candidate does not satisfy in vote counting, he/she could complain before the election committee within three days of the completion of vote counting and declaration of election. In the condition of having complain, tomorrow from the completion of complaining period, vote shall be counted.
- (k) The decision made by the election committee shall be final decision.
19. Qualification to be a candidate :-
- (a) Having not done renewal of membership.
- (b) In the name list published by the election committee if written complain majority member is obtained.
20. Motion of the no confidence :-
- (a) If 1/3 of members out of total members of the organization table the vote of no confidence along with reason to the Executive Committee and any official of the Executive Committee then that motion of vote of no

