

R. No. 476

04 June 2009

RPO

- (c) While making amended the constitution of the organization it should be amended without making adverse in the interest and the objectives of the organization.
- (d) Amended constitution shall come into force after getting approval in accordance with the prevailing Act.
22. Regulations could be framed :- The organization could frame necessary Regulations in the context of completion of its function and that's information should be provided to the local authority.
- (a) To fulfill the objectives of this constitution, the Executive Committee could frame necessary Rules and Regulations.
- (b) The provision about the service, facility and term and condition of the personnels of the organization, and the provision to work jointly with having similar objectives organization and to give and take co-operation and affiliation to the function of other organization if that's objectives are similar, shall be done by the Regulations.
- (c) The Executive Committee could issue Directives and Directions.
- (d) To systematize the membership of the organization, the Executive Committee could implement framing Membership Regulations.
- (e) If there need to do any amendment in Rules and Regulations framed by the Executive Committee then in the presence of all officials of the Executive Committee and by complete majority, it shall be amended and implemented.
- (f) The Regulations framed by the Executive Committee should be approved by the general meeting.
- (g) In the condition of having not framed Rules and Regulations, it shall be in accordance with the decision made by the general meeting and the Executive Committee.
23. Ad hoc Committee :- The ad hoc committee form to register establishing this organization shall have to form a committee for the function of election in accordance with the constitution within 6 months. Within this period all the functions done by the ad hoc committee shall be deemed as done in accordance with this constitution.

