

R. No. 476

04 June 2009

RFD

- (k) All members shall have to follow the provisions as prescribed by this constitution.
- (m) No members except the life-long member and who do not have renewal the membership could participate and could be candidate in the election of the organization.
- (n) While taking action to any member, the concerning member could not be deprived from the opportunity of clearance. To provide such opportunity of clearance it shall not be deemed made obstacle as the medium or procedure as regarded suitable by the Executive Committee.
- (o) In the year of holding of election of central Executive Committee of organization, membership should be renewed within prescribed period of time. The member who does not renew within the prescribed period of time could not be candidate and could not participate in the election.
- (p) The Executive Committee could prescribe patron to the distinguish gentleman/lady who provide special contribution to the organization.
- (q) Honorary member could not take participation in the voting.
- (r) No person's membership could be existed who does not have qualification as prescribed by this constitution.
- (s) All members of the organization shall have to follow the provision as prescribed by the prevailing law, and constitution.

Chapter-4

Provision relating to general meeting and meeting

11. Matters relating to call the meeting of the organization and notice to be given to the meeting :-

- (1) General meeting of this organization shall be as following :-
- (a) Annual general meeting, and
- (b) Special general meeting.
- (2) First annual general meeting of this organization shall be held within two months from the date of completion of F.Y. Thereafter annual

