

R. No. 476
04 June 2009

R.R.D.

- (e) No fee shall be taken for honorary membership.
 - (f) Membership and renewal fee could be changed by the general meeting. That's information shall be given before the local authority.
- (2) Procedure to distribute membership.
- (a) The elected Executive Committee could distribute membership of the organization who have qualification remaining under this constitution and Rules and Regulations made remaining under this constitution. Without the decision of the Executive Committee no person and organization could obtain the membership of this organization.
 - (b) To obtained member by concerning person and organization there should be given application for membership in prescribed form.
 - (c) While providing membership of the organization by the Executive Committee what short of membership is provided should be recorded in its decision.
 - (d) The official of managing committee of the organization shall be deemed the founder members. If they pay life-long fee then they could obtained life-long membership.
 - (e) The Executive Committee could provide honorary membership to any Nepali of the world who is well wishers of the organization deciding that completely qualified. But he/she shall not get voting right.
 - (f) Representative membership could be provided to any organization or person having worked in this organization having similar objectives of the organization.
 - (h) Regarding the membership the organization it could provide membership implementing any rules, Regulations, Directives and Rules.
 - (i) While providing membership to the person and organization, deeming suitable by the Executive Committee it shall be provided remaining within the ambit of prevailing Laws and Act.

