

R. No 476

04 June 2009

R.P.D.

- (l) To provide authority in accordance with necessity to any official, coordinator and vice-president.
- (m) To implement agreement made with donor organization by the Executive Committee.
- (n) If any official of the executive who becomes absence in the meeting of the Executive Committee continuously three times without notice it could be removed from the Executive Committee. To such officials the time to provide opportunity of clearance shall be provided.
- (o) Managing advisors and to appoint them as per necessity.
- (p) Prescribing the date of election of Executive Committee and to form election committee and to make available the name list of members who could participate in the election to the election committee.
- (q) To achieve the objectives of the organization, the Executive Committee could form different sub-committees as per necessity and on such sub-committee any person could be included by the Executive Committee which is deems suitable including the representative of donor organization.
- (r) To do and make to do all other functions which happens to come on behalf of the organization including case, litigation, plaint-paper, rejoined-paper, appeal, petition and compromise-paper and to do and make to do provident and use of it's right.
- (s) To do and make to the above stated functions only after taking prior approval of His Majesty's Government to do agreement or to take assistance with the foreign donor organization.
- (t) No members of the Executive Committee and staff shall be liable if there becomes any loss or damage while doing functions with good intention in the function of committee.

14. Number of quorum :

- (1) No functions and procedure of general meeting shall be without presence of 51 percent of members out of total members.

